

Numerology-The Secret of Numbers

with Jen Lee, RN, ARNP, Tarot Reader, Intuitive and Reiki Healing Master

Every thing in life can be reduced to a numeric vibration. Through the study of numbers, we can better understand ourselves and the vibration people and places and events in our lives.

In this class, Jen will show you how to gather your own numbers, from your life path numbers to the cycles in your life and many many more aspects of personal numbers. Each number reveals certain personality tendencies and traits. And each numeric vibration has a positive and negative energy that can be associated with them. Through understanding your own numbers and the influence of those vibrations in your lives, you can find ways to overcome the negative blocks in your life.

Through knowledge and insight comes the ability to breakthrough those parts of our self that blocks our growth.

In this Numerology teleclass, Jen will also show the cycles of your life and ways to harness the energy coming in the future. You will understand what cycle you are currently experiencing, the lesson you need to learn, and when the cycle will be shifting to a new vibration.

As well as personal numbers, we will be studying numbers of places, your phone numbers, events and loved ones. By the end of the four weeks, you will have a great foundation for showing others the secrets of numbers.

All you need is to show up! So email or call me today to sign up (253-549-8627). Once signed up, I will give you the long distance number and pin number to call in for the class.

Stay open and available for Spirit to bring Heaven to Earth each day through you in amazing ways!
