

Reiki 1 Energy Healing Certification Class

with Jen Lee, RN, ARNP, Reiki Healing Master, Intuitive and Spiritual Teacher

Have you activated your inner healer? Are you already in alignment with your healing power and allowing the greatest amount of Universal Life Force Energy (Reiki) to flow in and through you? Are you healing yourself and others daily?

Reiki I certification will increase the amount of energy that is already coming through you. If you have never worked with healing energy before, Reiki I will open your own energy centers to facilitate healing in yourself first, and then to help others heal. Wherever you are on your own healing path, Reiki can help to increase and amplify the energy and healing power.

Activate your healing power by taking this Reiki 1 class taught by a Reiki Master. This will help you realize your strength, power and will open up your intuitive abilities. And in turn you will help to heal the planet by raising your own vibration!

Call or email me for more information and to sign up. The class includes instructions on giving self-healing, healing to others, and opening up the chakras. We will come together on this day and you will receive your 'attunements' and become the Healer you were destined to be.

For those of you already attuned, please share this with someone you love. If we all open up and realize our healing potential we can heal the world. For one of the blessings of Reiki is that when you give a treatment, you receive a treatment. And when I teach Reiki and give you an attunement, I also receive attunements. The energy passes in and through us. What a marvelous demonstration on giving and receiving. Both must occur for a true healing to take place and giving and receiving will occur when it is activated in your body.

I truly believe this is good for everyone. I am looking forward to all of us realizing our greatest potential!
